Stop Persecuting Germans In The U. S. A.

Hon. Harry S. Truman

The White House

Dear Mr. President:

The purpose of this communication is to call your attention to a very important crisis in the future civic and racial harmony within our nation.

In view of the adjournment of Congress same can only be met by your sending a letter to the Attorney General, Tom Clark, Washington, D. C., protesting against the contemplated atrociously inhumane breaking up of families within our midst, which will result from the carrying out of the plan (recently cooked up by a few rabid leaders of a very minor part of our population, for the obvious purpose of relieving their feelings of hatred of a now dead member of their race) by which 900 simple minded long time residents belonging to a proportion of our population—who for no proven cause have already been subjected to extreme mental torture, along with their families, during the past three years or more—face now immediate deportation in a ship which is already being prepared for such purpose.

These 900 long time residents of our country of German origin have been held in internment camps since years—and without any serious examination of their respective cases—are now classified as "potentially dangerous alien enemies" and have been notified of their impending deportation to Germany.

It is apparent that such action, now that the war in Europe is over since more than three months, and in view of the general desirability of the speedy resumption of ordinary friendly intercourse among our citizens regardless of their ancestral origin, constitutes a very serious instance of that continuance of dis-unity-breeding war-time animosity, which should now be forgotten rather than perpetuated, if our citizens are to be expected to henceforth work together in harmony for the main and sole purpose of promoting the general welfare, as set down in our Constitution as the main reason for the coming into existence of our commonwealth and nation.

This matter calls all the more strongly for immediate and serious and effective remedial attention, because as a matter of fact the vast majority of these 900 persons, now threatened with deportation, are on one hand persons possessed of no desire to perpetuate the former rule of the country of their origin—and cannot be shown to have given any aid or comfort whatsoever to Germany, while it was still in existence, as an organized nation at war with the United States—and on the other hand, are for the most part very simple minded people interested mainly in the support of their families and possessing in their respective avocation a degree of industrial skill, which in the past has rendered them very useful inhabitants of our country, and will again make them useful inhabitants from the very moment of their being restored to the ordinary walks of life.

And this latter consideration is all the more urgent, because during these years of their internment, their admittedly innocent wives and children have been subjected to increasing poverty and consequent increasing social decline, which will not only be continued, but accentuated and increased, if their breadwinning husbands and fathers shall now be sent out of the country instead of being allowed to go back home and attend to the rehabilitating of their now impoverished and humiliated wives and children.

If nothing out of the way is to be attributed to the commonly expressed dislike of Jewish people, in nearly every country in which they have taken refuge, to be returned to their respective native lands, even along with their families, why should we apply to the case of these presently interned German nationals the very different yardstick implied in sending them without their families to a land where they will at once be put into concentration camps without any just cause for such punishment having been proven against them

There can be no point whatsoever in such increasing and accentuating of the distressful conditions of these families of German nationals interned now, other than the gratifying of a feeling of revenge—if such feeling exists—on the part of those of our people who are of Jewish origin; and since it is very doubtful that any large number of Jewish persons in the ordinary walks of life are still consumed by such putative sentiments of bitterness against these interned German nationals, it is apparent that the gratifying of such animosity, as may still be felt by a small minority of our people of Jewish origin will be an objective of very little consequence as compared with the really important objective of rapidly healing such internal wounds as may have been caused by the war.

The members of the Citizens' Protective League are convinced from such contact as they possess with 30 million American citizens of German ancestry, that the vast majority is willing to forget all about the inconveniences caused them by the Jewish boycott and its attendant consequences, and are willing to resume the ordinary relationships of our civic life without any bedevilment of our future civic and political activities on behalf of the common good, such as will inevitably result, if spiteful activities against people of their European origin are allowed to continue.

It is therefore our sincere hope that, in recognition of the justice of letting these interned German nationals go home to their families, now that the termination of the European war has removed every possible reason or basis of suspicion, such as might have caused their original segregation—you will devote to this matter of justice and rehabilitation a degree of attention sufficient to bring about the estoppel of these deportation proceedings which ought never to have been commenced; and which, in the minds of our 30 million American citizens of German origin, will never be regarded as prompted by any other feeling than that of a racial animosity which must surely have found sufficient satisfaction and gratification in the miseries which have been inflicted upon our people of German origin as a result of that utterly un-American boycott which for so many years was vindictively waged against all Americans of German origin, no matter how loyal to the United States their proven attitude and actions undoubtedly were.

It is obvious that nothing but the increasing and perpetuating of racial disunity within the borders of our own Republic can result from a continuance of feud between Jew and German, and of the boycott instituted—against the part of our population of the United States which is of German origin—by that part of our population which is of Jewish origin.

Trusting that you will see the justice of our contention and write to the Attorney General, Tom Clark, Washington, D. C., as humbly suggested, we beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,
KURT MERTIG, Chairman

Pearl Harbor War Criminals

FDR, MARSHALL, CHURCHILL, STIMSON, HULL, ROSENMAN et Als.

There is much noise about who the guilty parties are at Pearl Harbor. Slowly the various writers in the public press dare point their fingers in the direction of the Commander in Chief, who according to all reports was cognizant of the actual imminence of the attack but, because the people did not want war, permitted it to take place to arouse the people to the frenzy of REVENGE against the alleged "sneak attack" which was known in advance and deliberately permitted to occur.

The investigation of Pearl Harbor, so far, is being aimed in the wrong direction. It is not what officers are or are not guilty. The Congress should bring out the facts, which history has recorded and which finally cannot be withheld from the people, namely that the people did not want war, but the Messrs. Churchill and FDR wanted it, so the people had to be forced into it and the "sneak attack" was definitely calculated and expected in Washington, D. C. under the astute guidance of Gen. Marshall. Here is the clue to the situation as presented by George E. Sokolsky:

Mr. Stimson speaking:

"The first thing in the morning I called up Hull to find out what his final decision had been with the Japanese—whether he had handed them the new proposal which we passed on two or three days ago or whether, as he suggested yesterday, he had broken off the whole matter. As he put it, 'I have washed my hands of it, and it is now in the hands of you and Knox, the army and navy.'"

Mind, it was not as though the president and the secretaries of state, war and navy did not know how dangerous the situation was. In fact, the report says:

"The war department was urging officially and privately that every effort be made to delay the declaration of war by Japan because of our serious state of unpreparedness and because much of our available military resources was being utilized to assist the United Nations..."

And on Nov. 27 the day the ultimatum was issued, Gen. Marshall and Adm. Stark "wrote a joint memorandum to the president requesting that no ultimatum be delivered to the Japanese, as the army and navy were not ready to precipitate an issue with Japan, and notified him of the agreement reached with the British and the Dutch for reciprocal action in the case either one of them was attacked."

But the ultimatum was issued before, the president read this memorandum from the two men responsible for meeting Japan on the field of battle. So the ultimatum was issued anyhow. But Why? What Was the Rush?

Who stimulated this act? We are not yet told. But the report does tell us this from a message from Gen. Marshall to Gen. Short:

"If hostilities cannot comma repeat comma be avoided comma the United States desires that Japan commit the first overt act. This policy should not comma repeat comma be construed as restricting you to a cause of action that might jeopardize your defense."

And the report comments:

"This instruction embodies our well-known national policy against initiating war. The responsibility for beginning the war must be Japan's..."

Editor's Note: In plain Americanese Marshall told Gen. Short: We want Japan to start the war, be smart enough to protect yourself so that you will be technically in the clear, but our policy is to get the Japs to start it. And so the boys at Pearl Harbor and Bataan were "expendables" to get the country into war. Marshall knew what sacrifices it entailed. But they planned it that way.

The Citizen is King and Master

POWER OF CIVILIAN TO MAKE ARRESTS

On Saturday before Labor day I was driving west on Ash street in San Diego and as I was nearing the intersection where the El Cortez Hotel is I noticed a large car in front of me racing like a bat out of hell, making straight for an old lady, a spry old lady, who fortunately leaped out of the car's reach by a hairbreadth and then looked after the speeding car with indignation, that quickly changed to resignation: "Oh, those sailors!" for the driver and his passenger were sailors in naval uniform. Since the car, instead of slowing, put on even greater speed, I realized the man knew he had almost run over the old lady, and would have, had she not leaped in time, and wanted to get away from the place. That got my anger up, so I took after him. My little Willys '36, chasing after that big fellow. He treaded in and out of traffic, gaining; but I kept after him right in the opening he made for me and blew the horn to beat the band, finally coming abreast of him and inching him to the curb, at Fifth Avenue, ordered him to stop with a tone of voice few people ever dare disobey, so he pulled up and I drew in front of him, like a police car, to block his escape.

"Say, do you know you almost ran over that old lady, what's your hurry?"

The driver looked like a decent fellow, of smaller stature, his passenger a heavy set guy. "I could not help it, the sun blinded me." It was late afternoon.

"If you were driving blind, why did you not crawl along?! That is reckless driving, you had better come along with me to the police station."

The fellow next to him started: "Show me your credentials. Who are you?"

"Mister, you are in California, not Arkansas. I saw the incident and as a citizen I have power to make this arrest. You fellows better come along."

The driver was crestfallen. "But I was on my way to meet my wife."

So that was it. An Arkansas car, with the young sailor hell bent to see his wife. Drove him reckless. I could understand it. But what good would it have done the wife had he killed or crippled the old lady?

"Alright, run along, but for God's sake, have some sense, when you drive blindly, crawl, don't race, give people a chance". He backed his car out and drove away.

During this scene a number of sailors and soldiers had stopped to see what went on. There was that skinny old man, reading the law to two sailors. What if they had been truculent? Well, they would have been up against it. Had they talked up nastily, I would have tapped the fellow on the shoulder and put him under arrest and then all the King's horses and all the king's men would not have separated me from my prisoner. Had they added physical resistance and started a riot the charges against them would have cumulated, finally the police would have had to come in to stop the riot and the whole bunch of us would have gone down to the station.

The citizen is the sovereign and highest authority in the Republic. His duty is not merely to pay taxes, but he also is the chief enforcer of the law and keeps his eyes on the way the government is conducted and what happens in his realm where he is King and Master. The public officials are his servants and he can even arrest them if they fail to follow the law. If the people at large were informed and conscious of their duties, rights and powers in the Republic so many things would improve. As old and skinny as I am, I take my citizenship seriously. Corruption and lawbreaking proceeds as far as the people will let it go, when the citizens decide to put a stop to it, it can disappear over night. The government is what we make it. If I can do it, the other millions can do it, too. All of us together are the government and it is not better than we are. We get what we make.

The California Penal Code provides:

834. Arrest defined: By whom made. An arrest is taking a person into custody, in a case and in a manner authorized by law. An arrest may be made by a peace-officer or by a private person.

837. Arrests by private persons: (Circumstances authorizing).

A private person may arrest another:

1. For a public offense committed or attempted in his presence.
2. When the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in his presence.
3. When a felony has been in fact committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it.

The license number on the car was Ark. 165232.

Ellis O. Jones Free Again

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Greetings from the outside after 41 months incarceration in vile jails for a crime or intent to commit a crime—of which I was wholly innocent. And I didn't get out on parole either. Atty. Gen. Clark proved equally unjust in that regard with the unspeakable Biddle. He did not even answer my letter in regard to the matter.

I shall be in Washington for some months, I think. I want to put into book form the bits of verse which I wrote during the trial under the name of Eugene Eustace. I have about 30 items suitable for such a volume most of which you have seen and many of which you have thought well enough to publish. These, with introduction and explanatory notes should fill nearly 100 pages to retail at $1.50 for cloth and $1.00 for paper cover, making a work of considerable historical value, in my humble opinion.

Do you know of anyone who would publish or help to finance such a project. At this time, I am out of touch with both printers and prices and so cannot give a fair estimate. Any sums advanced as loans, however, will be repaid either in cash or in books at half the retail price as preferred.

All communications may be addressed as below.

What Every American Should Know

SPEECH OF

HON. ALVIN E. O'KONSKI,
 of Wisconsin.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
 Thursday, May 3, 1945

Mr. O'KONSKI. Mr. Speaker, the chaotic conditions in Europe today ought to cause every red-blooded American citizen to ask the question, "How long are the people going to permit allowing the United States of America to be the sucker for international do-gooders?" Critical times in Europe—worse now than before the War No. II started—should cause every real American to ask, "How long are we going to permit our boys to bleed on foreign battlefields all over the world because of the greed and the stupidity of the international do-gooders who are leading America today?"

These international do-gooders already have blood on their hands but they are at it again. They want knowingly or unknowingly, that our boys should bleed again. These same international do-gooders who have manipulated us into this and every war want for certain to manipulate us into every war in the future so that business will always be good. If any nation does not possess the materials with which to wage war on us the international do-gooders want America should give them materials. The arguments used by these international do-gooders would be laughable if they were not so pitiful. The international do-gooders in America of today are no different from those of other days. These international do-gooders are taking us into a league with death and a covenant with hell.

Led by such international do-gooders like "Big Business" Baruch, they tell us something which they think is amazing. They tell those of us who oppose feeding and financing the world that we will be responsible for a third world war. In answer to so stupid a statement I wish to state that as long as I am a Member of Congress I am going to keep my self-respect. And as long as I am a Member of Congress there is going to be no blood on my hands, because I followed the treacherous path of the international do-gooders. As long as I am a Member of Congress I shall not vote to send any materials of war or any money to any nation whom I suspect might someday wage war on us.

I think I am of average American intelligence. Up to a few months ago I thought and believed that Hitler and Tojo, backed by America's international do-gooders, started this war in which our boys are bleeding all over the world. I still think so! But lo and behold, of late the international do-gooders are telling us that America started this war because we were isolationists and refused to play Santa Claus. These fakers now tell us that if we had been more of a Santa Claus that there would have been no Hitler and Tojo to start a war. This propaganda is as vicious as it is stupid. But regrettably I must say many of our citizens are believing it; yes, even most Members in the halls of Congress. The very fact that the wars in Europe started even after we were already playing Santa Claus to the world does not even cause the international do-gooders to blush at their own arguments. The very fact that war in Asia broke out because we played Santa Claus causes international do-gooders little concern. History sadly teaches us that wars in the world since 1934 were directly proportioned to how big a Santa Claus America was. The more we played Santa Claus the more we had wars. The more we extended our Santa Claus attitude the wider the war spread.

It is high time that the bloody trail of the international do-gooders be exposed. America has already sacrificed a million of its best boys to satisfy the unending appetites of the international do-gooders. What I propose to do today is to prove conclusively that it was too much America's being Santa Claus that has already cost us a million casualties of our own finest boys. More casualties are in the offing. America and America alone with its international al do-gooders' foreign policy built Hitler's war machine that killed hundreds of thousands of our own boys. America and America alone with its international do-gooders' policy built Tojo's war machine, which has and will cost us a million more lives. Hitler and Tojo are not the only ones with blood on their hands. Right here in America the international do-gooders must be classed with them.

WHO HELPED JAPAN ATTACK US?

To be specific, let us take Japan. The international do-gooders told us that to be friends with them we must trade with them and give them money and materials. Listening to them, we stepped up our trade with Japan. The fact that Japan marched into China did not concern the international do-gooders. The fact that Japan broke the Kellogg Pact did not concern the international do-gooders. We must trade with Japan they told us. We must be Santa Claus. We must be good to the Japs so they will love us—is what we were told. The fact that Japan even broke the disarmament agreements did not even budge the international do-gooders. They still insisted that to keep the peace we must do business with Japan—we Americans must always be international do-gooders. Japan even went into Camrath Bay near the Philippines and attacked American lives and property, still the international do-gooders said we must play Santa Claus to them—in fact they said to be friends we must become a bigger Santa Claus. All the while Japan was getting ready to attack us the international do-gooders so eager to play Santa Claus insisted we help them prepare. The international do-gooders did not care what we shipped as long as we could play Santa Claus and do business with them and make the Japs happy.

So what happened? Here in America we threw men and women out of work, closed our toy factories and bought our toys from Japan—hundreds and millions of dollars worth. What did the international do-gooders send Japan in return for toys? Food? No. Clothing? No. We shipped them oil and gas and steel and scrap iron and money to help build her war machine. Japan sent us dolls and toys—we in turn sent Japan gas, iron, money, and bullets. The international do-gooders got America to buy gold from Japan at an inflated price which amounted to a cash grant of nearly a billion dollars so that she could pay for her war machine. We not only furnished Japan with the materials of war, we even gave her the money with which to start a war against us. Still the international do-gooders in America do not even blush. They are still at it but in a different way, in a stronger way, and on a much larger scale. At that time they dealt only in a few billions of dollars. Now they are dealing in hundreds of billions of dollars. Japan's sneak attack on America at Pearl Harbor was possible only because the international do-gooders who wanted to play Santa Claus in America gave Japan the materials and the money with which to do it. The international do-gooders in America must share the responsibility for murder equally with Japan.

Let us be specific about the ways of America's international do-gooders. Here are some interesting but disgusting figures taken from 405 of the hearings before the Foreign Affairs Committee last year. When Japan attacked us at Pearl Harbor here is where her war materials came from:

Trucks, autos and parts, 91 percent given her by the United States of America.

Copper, 93 percent given her by the United States of America.

All oil, 60 percent given her by the United States of America.

Pig iron, 41 percent given her by the United States of America.

Scrap iron, 60 percent given her by the United States of America.

Machinery and engines, 48 percent given her by the United States of America.

High-action gasoline, 100 percent given her by the United States of America.

From these figures we can see that the United States of America, following the advice of the international do-gooders, gave Japan an average of 75 percent of her materials of war. Without these materials Japan could never have started the war. In fact without these materials from the United States of America, Japan would never have dreamed of attacking us at Pearl Harbor. The international do-gooders did not change their ways one iota when the American boys had American scrap iron shot into their flesh by the Japanese. The international do-gooders will not change their ways after a million of our boys are filled with scrap iron and materials we ourselves gave to Japan.

(To Be Continued)

Is That What America Went To War For?

TEN POLICE CHIEFS CALLED IN TO FIGHT BERLIN CRIME WAVE

BERLIN.—To cope with crime—which with food forms the two big problems facing the Allied commanders here—10 former police chiefs are being sent to the 21st army group for training. On their return they will set up police schools in the German capital.

During July, 123 murders, 598 cases of rape and attacks on women, 1,483 robberies and 5,500 black market arrests were reported to the authorities. There were also 147 cases of fraudulently assuming authority.

The murders included a number of German policemen shot while trying to prevent looting.

A contributory cause to the prevalence of crime is the fact that there are only 160 professional policemen among the 12,000 men at present wearing police uniform. Immediately after the occupation the whole Berlin police force was dismissed and replaced by men lacking experience in this work. Efforts are now being made to get some of the former policemen back into the force and to remove the recruits known to have criminal records.

Further difficulty is added to this problem by the fact that men of the United Nations are responsible for a number of crimes, particularly the more serious ones.

During July 95 persons committed suicide. The main reasons given were despondency or fear of arrest.

In its issue of 22nd Jan., 1943, 'The Times' reported that at a Townhall meeting in Los Angeles, Joseph E. Davies, former USA Ambassador to the Soviets, disclosed on the 20th that the Germans in 1940 had offered to retire Hitler if, by so doing, they could make peace with Britain. The condition attached to this was that Germany should remain in its dominant position in Europe. Next time you hear anyone saying that we had to go to war to protect ourselves—tell them that.—Gothic Ripples, by Arnold Leesee, 20, Pewley Hill, Guildford, Surrey, England.

The Communist Party, gloating over the recent victories of the Red elements in the English election, has now removed its false whiskers and called for a definite Red revolution in the U. S. A. Stalin is quoted as saying that we will have a Soviet America in five years.

CANADIAN JEWS HELPED DEVELOP ATOMIC BOMB

MONTREAL.—A number of Jews figure in the long list of scientists who have worked in Canada on the development of the atomic bomb. The list was released here by C. D. Howe, Canada's Minister of Munitions and Supply and Reconstruction.

The Jewish scientists, who were associated with the Montreal laboratory established during the war for atomic research, are Dr. M. Eisen, of the University of Toronto; L. Nirenberg of McGill University; J. W. Ozeroff of the University of British Columbia; Dr. L. Yaffe of the University of Manitoba; Dr. M. Cohen of the University of Toronto, and Dr. L. Siminovich of McGill University.

ATOM SMASHERS

While the newspapers mention the names of four Jewish scientists: Prof. J. Robert Oppenheimer, Prof. Rudolf Peierls, Dr. Franz Eugene Simon and Dr. Lise Meitner, in connection with the atomic bomb, they overlooked the fact that Prof. Albert Einstein was the creator of the theory that made the discovery possible... As a matter of fact, we happen to know that Einstein was an active consultant during the period of experimentation.—B'nai B'rith Messenger

Tax-Dodgers. Aroused by press reports showing that rich European refugees have reaped huge profits in American stock markets but have not paid taxes, Sen. Maybank, South Carolina Democrat, last week demanded enactment of legislation which would require these refugee profiteers to pay the same high wartime tax rates levied on American citizens.

The 'Real' Pearl Harbor Story Expected Soon

F. D. R. KNEW ATTACK WAS COMING.
 LETTER HINTS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The inside story of Pearl Harbor, with its shocking disclosures that the late President Roosevelt knew the Japs were going to attack the United States, may come soon, the weekly capital news letter Human Events, reported.

The publication, edited by Felix Morley, newspaper man and recently resigned president of Haverford college, and Frank C. Hanighen, former foreign correspondent, said startling disclosures are expected in congress when and if the Pearl Harbor investigation report is made public.

Truman at Potsdam was stubborn toward Stalin's wishes in Japan. Stalin wanted to share authority over Tokyo. He wanted to seize islands off the coast of Alaska. He wanted many other unreasonable things, but President Truman set his foot down and refused to budge an inch.

Elliott Got Million in Pay, Loans, Fees

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A total in excess of $1,175,000 was garnered from various sources by Elliott Roosevelt, second son of the late President, in the 12 year period between his graduation from Groton prep school at the age of 18 and his entrance into the army at the age of 30, evidence before the house ways and means committee revealed.

This amount includes the loans of more than $800,000 which are under investigation by the committee. But Elliott also collected approximately $375,000 in salaries, sales, and settlements for an average of more than $30,000 annually to make an amazing success story.

Retired from the army with a brigadier general's rank two weeks ago, Elliott is now reported at 34 ready to resume his spectacular career, asserting he can show the world that his previous large income was not due to White House prestige. He was receiving $76,000 a year, more than his late father, when commissioned a captain in October, 1940.

Mother, James Got More

Only Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, his mother, and James Roosevelt, his older brother, have eclipsed Elliott in profitable employment of their talents while the late President held office. Elliott stands alone, of course, in borrowing skill, according to the tale being unfolded before the committee.

Movement upon movement had been inaugurated, and altho at times it seemed as if success would be the reward of their untiring efforts, yet a sudden reaction absorbed the leading feature of the movement and turned it into channels diametrically opposed to the original project.

Many a leader had risen, gaining the ever ready ears of the masses who were prepared at any moment to use their patriotic enthusiasm for united action, and, if needs be, even enter into the conflict and war to further their cause. These same leaders did not fail to profit more or less by their selfish manoeuvres, tho the advantages gained were always at the expense of the masses.

With every attempt for liberation, with every movement for recognition, the rebuff experienced would prove fatal to new undertakings, the leaders being ever on the alert to change their tactics whenever an opportunity presented itself to further their own designs, leaving the bulk of the masses at a loss as to a mode of further action.

However, there were many who no longer shared the current ideas for liberation and who abhorred contention and strife, rather devoting their time to the study of better ways and means for deliverance, carefully noting events and comparing them with past history. To the minds of this particular class came an inspiration which grew and gradually caught fire, and the flames of hope rose higher and higher with the assurance that the time was ripe for Him to appear, according to promise, to overturn prevailing conditions and establish a new order of things.

At this particular time the nobler and more thoughtful minds harbored the long-nourished idea of His coming more strongly than ever, while many felt with almost a certainty that further delay was improbable, and every moment, expected the glorious tidings to be whispered from lip to lip "He has come."

But how was He to come, this promised one? The house of David had long since passed into the hands of strangers and its scepter become lost thru many changes and innovations, until those sitting in government no longer showed traces of blood relationship to the former household. The high-priesthood, altho by profession Jewish, was by necessity Roman, by culture Greek, and by birth anything but of the house of Israel.

He, then, who was to come to deliver His people from oppression, just as Moses had led them out of bondage, could not be expected to come thru the lineage of those at the head of the nation, neither could He come thru those in authority within the church.

"From among thy brethren I shall rise One who shall guide my people" echoed repeatedly in the ears of those who had been patiently looking forward to the day when there would be an end to all this strife and contention, an end to this uncertainty.

There were men and women of the noblest and purest type who daily searched the scriptures, carefully weighing the prophecies in their anxiety to discover some glimpse of light which might inspire their sinking hearts with new hope. With all their patient waiting there seemed to be but one thing certain that the Promised One would not come from the higher caste, as their trust had been exercised too long in that direction only to result in sorrow and grief.

Many a humble and devout woman had hoped she might find favor in the presence of the Eternal and be the one to bear that blessed child, and many had born blessed children who had become great in accordance with the talents and abilities transmitted to them by their mothers' cherished desires and their understanding of the laws of eugenics.

However, none of the children as yet born seemed to come up to the extraordinary high standard of mental and physical endowments necessary to become a Savior of the world; each one falling short seemingly in one direction or another according to the adverse conditions governing or the un-toward environments with which they were surrounded.

Among those who were seriously looking forward towards a change to a new order of things in the affairs of the nation and the church was one man in particular who took an exceptional interest in a movement about to be inaugurated, a man of high social, intellectual and spiritual standing, not only among those who had the welfare of the people at heart, but also with the world. This same man had repeatedly attempted to solve the social problems of the nation of which he was proud to be a member, yet ashamed because of its debased condition. Altho opportunities had presented themselves before him to rise to positions of honor and trust in the world because of the almost unlimited wealth at his command, yet he had not, only refused to enter upon a worldly career, but he had resigned his position as a high dignitary in the church for the fact that he could no longer endure the corrupt tactics of the church and state and conscientiously attend to his duties.

This man could no longer serve a cause which had no other object in view than self-aggrandisement to the sacrifice of the well-being and liberty of his fellowmen. In possession of a thoro knowledge of the affairs of government, and well versed in law and the commentaries of the church in general, he withdrew temporarily from the public field to devote his time to the study of subjects leading him towards the adoption of ways and means whereby the prophecies and predictions might find their realization, as "no prophet can be true unless the predictions made are brought to realization thru his own actions."

Altho surrounded with luxury when residing in the city of Jerusalem, this man retired to the mountains for solitude, there to concentrate upon the preparation of a new area, the outcome of which was to be left to the conditions of time. Not only did his numerous relatives look up to him with pride because of his voluminous and versatile learning, but others as well took up their pilgrimage to his mountain home to seek comfort from their many superstitious and religious scruples.

This large circle of friends eagerly sought this man's solitude and watched his predictions with great interest, ready always to absorb every exhortation offered. Every sign and token in the Book of Nature, every new defeat in public affairs showed corresponding traces in the predictions made by their recognized expounder of the law.

Is it strange, then, that we find the devoted wife of the officiating priest of the Temple, at Jerusalem, Elizabeth by name, take to the hills quite frequently to seek solace there, and kneeling at the feet of her teacher and adviser receive the instructions preparatory to an event she felt assured was at her very door?

Thus we see Elizabeth and Miryam, her young protegee entrusted to her tender care by Youssef (Joseph) of Nazareth, the wood-carver, artist, builder and rancher, wander together to the hilltops to learn of the tidings of joy.

Esoteric Atomic Power

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I find your little paper most interesting and I am sure folks are in need of Truth these days—there are so few who dare to stand up and tell it. Of course, its possible that you can be wrong in some of your statements along esoteric lines. Since we are all at different stages of unfoldment, naturally we do not see eye to eye with the other fellow. But isn't it true that we are all just where we belong? I feel that you were a bit too hard on my good friend Elizabeth Dilling. She's America's finest, I think, no matter if she is a bit orthodox. Someone higher up on the ladder than you might castigate you also.

My Pet "Peeve" is the Gladys letter. How can a man who has a son and a wife be so inconsiderate of them—does he think only of himself and his "dream-girls"? And yet teach Love, etc., etc. You should explain to your invisible readers. We are forever looking for the true half, to be sure, but not many of us find that one. I suspect that most marriages are Karmic. But of course, the Soul never ceases the quest. But how about the wife's feelings? You are an enigma, your name indicates as much, and, too, just what is this Mazdaznan? Did your beloved Gladys materialize at this meeting?

I am afraid you are better on Atomic Bombs than the feminine. I liked that article. I'm wondering why you think it's necessary that you be my "Teacher". Don't you know that we should go direct for our information? All we need to do it tune in on Universal Mind.

Oh, yes, where did you get that name Kosti? What does it signify? Such mystery!!

Have you ever thought that some day you will be remunerated for all your efforts to enlighten the people and the dollars will come pouring in? That's the law.

I must confess that anyone who practices in daily, personal life, in the political, economic & religious realms the things they discover to be true in their esoteric studies, certainly deserve a crown. That's what we strive for. But how to attain? Not me.

Why don't you read "The Golden Scripts". Success to you and yours.

Sincerely, PEGGY.

* * * *

Dear Peggy:

To reply to your letter you woke me up at 1 A. M. after I had gone to bed at 10 P. M. 3 hours sleep and now I must work again. You see, when someone presents me with problems in my line of duty, as soon as I digested the subject matter and the answer is ripe, then it wakes me up in the middle of the night when all the world is asleep and makes me put it down on paper. I don't mind it, only my mate happened to be here visiting me and today we two are to be with each other for half a day, for the first time since we know that we are mates, and my, I will be all tired out from lack of sleep. She leaves again this afternoon. This is Labor Day.

Of course, we are all at different stages of unfoldment and what is yet permissible for Elizabeth Dilling becomes a crime when I do it. So she is permitted to be proud of having her son in uniform and teaching people to take military training and enjoy conscription as a duty, because she lacks the esoteric knowledge of Divine Atomic Power. She yet has to rely on brute force because Christ is not awakened to His Glory in her heart and mind. But when she abuses the name of the Christ, claims that Christians must go to war, then Elizabeth Dilling becomes a murderess of the Christ and it becomes my duty to warn the people against such murderous perversion of the teachings of the Christ. Bear in mind that is DUTY, not a personal prejudice of mine for which I might be rebuked.

As to the Gladys letter. Yes, Gladys was with me at the Mazdaznan Temple recently in Los Angeles when I met my real mate for the first time, meaning in this incarnation. You see, I have two sons, but am not married at present. Thus I am free to pursue the quest of my true mate and having obeyed the law, followed the esoteric truth in every respect, I am rewarded with meeting her who henceforth will help me do even greater and better things.

I have always gone to the Source of Life for all my important information. That's why I am a FREE Thinker, not a slave of the Bible or any racketeer organization, labeled Church of this or that Gimme Outfit.

Now why are we living in this world? Why, if one needs no teachers do we send our children to schools? Why are children not born wiser in all things than their parents, but parents have to teach them, beginning with housebreaking the diaper lad, and along the way all that which makes for good habits in personal character?

Kosti, is the Greek abbreviation for Constantin, the "C" in C. Leon. Of course, it stands for constant faith. The esoteric meaning: KOSHTI, means the "virtuous" one, symbolic of the 72 virtues of the Aryan or white race, "executor" of God's Plan of Life on earth. That happens to be my "office".

I don't read "The Golden Scripts" because I don't have them, and because I can find them directly by adherence to Principle in practice, so that I could write my own edition of it thereafter; hence I prefer the experience of living them, and producing them in practice.

I don't belong in this murderous world, but my task is to demonstrate divine atomic power. I, the unit, only ONE, am invincible and can pass thru any type of conditions unscathed and survive, as long as I realize that I AM the divine ATOM, the living unit which is indestructible and no power on earth, in heaven or in hell can rule me while I claim my divine birthright.

Having dared do it right in the midst of this war, to stand up for THE Christ AND PEACE while the others betrayed both, most cowardly, now I am entitled to have a home on earth, hence I met my real mate on this last vacation and everything is taking on a new shape for me, at last.

Certainly the dollars are bound to roll in when a soul dares defy Satan and his minions, risking life and all he has. Who else could use money to greater advantage and better purpose for the good of the Father's Rule on earth, than he who proved himself faithful and fearless in His service?

The Chats with Gladys are not mere amorous stories. Gladys is not my mate but typifies the daughter-pupil. I have raised two boys and always wanted to raise a girl, too. Since that was not granted me I have nourished a longing for a daughter who will be eager to learn from her dad. Out of it it turned out that here and there some young woman became temporarily attached to me in such an attitude and we had delicious chats. The first one was actually named Gladys and hence "Chats with Gladys". If you were conversant with the English history of the origin of the Order of the Garter, you would understand the French meaning of the motto: "Honi sois qui mal y pense", in English the liberal translation would say: "Shame on you if you think evil".

As to mateship. Mates are not fixed people. Mateship is in perpetual flux. Your mate of yesterday may not be the mate of today. You have plentiful examples of it all around you. The real mate keeps on changing in line with your own changes and unfoldment. None of us are today the same we were ten years ago. Now the mate who changes in line with you, always responsive to your changes so that there is complete balance and responsiveness, that's the mate who improves with you and with time you love each other more.

I was married twice, but in each case out-distanced the woman. Now I am going to pair up a third time. With the experience gained, the growth of my own character and the mellowness of the years, especially since I am very faithful to my duty, it will bring greater success commensurate with the efforts my mate puts forth, too, in that line. I am thankful to have found her, it all appears like a miracle and, still, is very commonplace. Two human beings with all the faults of the flesh and the divine power of the spirit to mould ourselves, responsive to the Infinite Designs of the Creator to serve His purposes here on earth.

Concerning Mazdaznan. Life on earth is not subject to haphazard. When the planets were formed and finally sentient life appeared on the globe, there also proceeded orderly government, led by the Avatars, the Builders of human races. Each race is turned out according to a model. Exactly as autos are turned out according to plans and designs. The group who figures out the new models are called Avatars.

When the white race appeared, it was because its Avatars had assembled in pairs a certain number of people who religiously followed their instructions in eugenics. Thus out of the Mongolian stock, almost suddenly, appeared a new model, the ARYAN, the white man and woman. Once these children saw the light of day in the flesh, then, they propagated their own kind, improved, or deteriorated. The Mazdaznan archives contain the "blue prints" of the group of thinkers who produced the white race. They are Mazda worshippers. MA means THOUGHT, and Zda stands for its splendor in expression. Yasna means worship in the sense of workshop. The contracted term of the words Mazda-Yasna was formed into Mazdaznan, freely translated: Master-Man. The white or Aryan race is a race of masters who control the forces of the world. Recently they even went so far as to tap atomic power, only they have degenerated into criminals, still they possess the faculties; it's like a tiger controlling atomic power. What pitiful condition of a fallen angel.

In the midst of this tragedy the original pupils of Mazdaznan appear upon the planet to restore the Rule of God in place of the rule of Satan. Militarism is Devil-rule. Thus the battle is on, the children of God arraigned against the Devils of this world. The Children of God are fearfully in the minority, but they have the power of God on their side, hence you notice that I survive, even though I am foolhardy enough to call the criminals by name, individually and collectively and expose their deceptions and their crimes against God and mankind. They are all alike, from Hitler, to Roosevelt, Truman, Rothschild, Rockefeller and Stalin. A bunch of hardbitten murderers.

Their misdeeds embroil their followers in disasters and as the results prove that nobody really gains peace, happiness and prosperity with health and friendship out of such doings, the world slowly accepts the Rule of GOOD THOUGHT, Good Word, and translates it into Good Action to turn the deserts into a paradise, fit for God and His Associates to dwell therein.

Hope this answers your queries, and thanks for your sincerity and frankness, which is delicious, my dear Peggy; now I'll try to snatch 2 more hours rest before I meet Her.

My best wishes for your own final success in the quest which every living being pursues on earth, Sincerely, KOSTI.

"English Girlies Wild As Negro GI's Leave 'Em"

But Reaction of U. S. Colored Girls Is Equally Violent—In Opposition

NEW YORK (Special), Sept. 1.—When Fredrick Kuh, Jewish correspondent of the Chicago Sun and N. Y. PM, wrote more than three years ago that the (Jewish) commanding officer of an U. S. colored unit in Northern Ireland was arranging dances between his black soldiers and Irish girls, it was plain to students of genetics that some miscegenation would result.

The "pay off" appeared in a dispatch from London last week in the "Daily News" and other N. Y. papers (Aug. 26) under the heading "English Girlies Wild as Negro GI's Leave 'Em'."

The "A. P." story relates how the London "Sunday Pictorial" in a front page story today reported a 'hysterical' demonstration by British girls over the departure of American Negro soldiers from Bristol.

White Girls Hysterical

With a headline "All This Happened in England Yesterday," the Pictorial Story said:

"The scene was Bristol, most English of all English cities. The time was 2 A. M. yesterday. The actors were a mob of screaming girls aged between 17 and 25.

"Their hysteria was caused by the news that four companies of American Negro soldiers in the city were leaving for home.

"The girls besieged the barracks where the soldiers were and began singing 'Don't Fence Me In.'

"This was too much for the colored men, who began to break down the barbed wire surrounding their quarters. In a few minutes, hundreds of girls and U. S. soldiers were kissing and embracing."

BURST INTO TEARS

The story related that the girls sobbed as trucks took the soldiers to the station, and police attempted to persuade the girls to go home.

"Most of them had been waiting since 7 P. M., the night before, and although it was pouring rain they decided to wait," the story said.

"I didn't mind getting wet," said one 18-year-old girl. "I intend to give my sweetie a good sendoff."

NEGRO PRESS PLAYS IT UP

As was to be expected, the U. S. colored press played up this story, unanimously.

The N. Y. "Amsterdam News" ran a three-column cut, headed "Take a Good Look, Brother Bilbo!"—and showing four attractive young English women sitting in the loving embraces of three colored soldiers. Not "high-yellows" but very black boys from the deep South, Georgia and Louisiana, with their names published. Photo from Cottingham, England.

The "Pittsburgh Courier's" correspondent in London made a column long report, stating that the Negro soldiers were confined in barracks for two days prior to departure, in order to prevent just such scene as did take place, and that it was the black boys who sang, "Don't Fence Me In."

The Courier reporter quoted hundreds of English girls as shouting, "To hell with the U. S. Army color bars! We want our colored sweethearts." The black GI's had been brought back from Germany to their old training grounds, at Bristol, to prepare for their departure for home.

The girls were quoted as stating, "We intend to go to America after them."

COLORED GIRLS FURIOUS

Langston Hughes, writing in the current "Chicago Defender," quoted America's colored women as being furious at the stories of cross-matings, and that many colored ladies "FEEL AS BITTERLY ABOUT MISCEGENATION AS DO BILBO AND RANKIN."

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will be invited to make a nationwide speaking tour immediately following the end of the war, sponsored by certain powerful anti-Communist organizations.

Tyler Kent wants to return immediately to the U. S. when he is released. His mother fears he will be assassinated because he knows so much about certain higher-ups.

Washington Welcomes Peace—Truman Makes His First "Faux Pas"—Socialists Active, But People Are Turning "Right"

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON (Special), Sept. 2.—Just back from my vacation, I find Congressmen drifting in from theirs, and all of us are speculating on the great news breaks that took place during our absence.

We join all mankind in thankfulness that world peace has come for the first time in more than a dozen years. But what a peace! This wholly unnecessary world war has injured mankind so grievously that a serious question arises as to survival of civilization.

President Truman has been functioning ably—making one magnificently patriotic stroke in ending "Lend-Lease" (sometimes written as "Lend-LOSE"). And then turning right around and making the biggest MISTAKE of his tenure thus far by SUGGESTING THAT WE SHOULD FORGIVE THE LEND-LEASE DEBTS!

Many patriots believe that the "Lend-Lease" law of early 1941 was the first sell-out of a great people in world history; that its proponents LIED when they asserted, before passage, that it was TO KEEP US OUT OF THE WAR. And immediately AFTER PASSAGE asserted "we are now in the war"!

The president of the Curtis Publishers (Sat. Eve. Post) then said, "We are now in the position of a diver who has jumped from the springboard. To save our lives, we cannot turn back. We next strike the water of war."

And that's exactly what the late F. D. Roosevelt wanted, planned and desired, although elected on a solemn pledge to keep us out of war!

The $42 BILLIONS the extravagant New Deal has spent on this colossal "GIVE-TAKE" represent a greater expenditure than the United States government paid out during the first 130 years of its history, including five wars.

These $42 BILLIONS must be paid by someone. Mr. Truman suggests that we (the overburdened American taxpayers) pay it ourselves, and let the foreigners go scott free.

I believe that Congress will turn him down, and demand that these debts be held as valid as those of American income taxpayers, and be used in acquiring American bases and other material in keeping the foreigners in line.

In 1896, when Americans were more patriotic than now, the Republican National Convention adopted in its platform the following words: "We hopefully look forward to the eventual withdrawal of the European powers from this hemisphere, and to the ultimate union of all English-speaking parts of the continent by the free consent of its inhabitants."

America should long ago have demanded the cession to it of the lands in this New World owned by Britain, France, Holland, etc. (but not including Canada, which should ultimately join us of its own accord).

SOCIALIST BILL

Socialists pressure groups are joining the socialist New Deal in supporting a demagogic bill for the government to go into business and employ the unemployed. Murray-Dingell-Patman movement. Truman also suggests a $25 weekly pension for the unemployed, thus encouraging the dole and retarding prosperity.

Socialism, via a side-door, is the plan of the New Deal. Americans must be on their guard, or our country will again be sold down the river of ruin. AMERICAN PRESSURE ON CONGRESS MUST OFFSET THE SOCIO-COMMUNIST DRIVE!

The Gallup poll shows an increasing swing of the American people away from the "left" and toward the "right", the rightists scoring above 68 per cent of Americans interviewed.

OUR GROUNDHOG WORLD

By Geo. Cartwright, Modesto, Calif.

APPRECIATION IN REVERSE

"The mail must go through," is a Post Office rule. Rain, shine, frost or flood, the postmaster takes each as it comes. The public expects and gets greater efficiency from publicly operated and owned service than is obtainable from a utility corporation. Accustomed to this few of us appreciate it fully. Opportunity is now before us to show our gratitude to our postal workers by informing the President, our U. S. Senator or Congressman we resent deduction of their pay for the Victory Day vacation. Two days vacation for a postman means at least two days of over-load when he returns. A few thousand penny postal cards addressed to the above asking, "Was Postmaster General's salary cut, for Victory Day Vacation, same as the postman's, and how much was the deduction?" will have a good moral effect. "An injury to one is an injury to all."

THE CHRISTIAN CITY

I dreamed one night that I was dead

And went straight up to heaven:

And Peter said, as he scratched his head,

We cannot give this man a bed

Until his history is given.

So I told them all my dreary past—

Told it to a committee:

Ending at last, as they stood aghast,

I lived where they hold the dollar fast,

Down in a Christian city.

I lived where dollars make men cold,

Where greed kills charity and pity.

And then I told, in languages bold,

How millionaires in the Christian fold

Serve God—and rob the city.

And Peter said " 'Tis enough; 'tis well!

(Addressing the committee):

We cannot send this man to hell,

For God is a God of pity."

And, as they opened wide the cell,

Peter said to the committee:

"You know full well the truth I tell:

This man has had enough of hell

Down in the Christian City."

—Tom Bowden

By the first quarter of the 4th century "Christianity" (heretofore Communist, Acts 2, 44 and 4, 32) had conformed so completely to the capitalist system as to attract the admiration of Constantine the Great, who by royal decree established Christianity as the religion of the Roman Empire. —John Campbell, Chula Vista, Calif.

Full Employment

There are two stages in planning for full employment. First, enough people must want it to make it politically feasible. Second, the plan itself must not only make economic sense, but be politically available. —Stuart Chase.

Protests Segal Article

DePriest Defends Monetary Congress As Being Totally Free From Racial or Religious Bias—Denies He Is a "Sedition Defendant".

(The following letter from Hudson De Priest was sent to The World-Telegram:)

Mr. Roy W. Howard, Publisher, The World Telegram and

Scripps-Howard Newspapers,

New York 15, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Howard:

I have long been a reader of your fine publications; hence I was shocked that they should run such a slanderous and unpatriotic series of articles as that by Eugene Segal.

I wish to denounce the Segal slander of Aug. 24, which the "World-Telegram published under the heading: "Money-Jugglers Sing Hymns of Hate". May I direct attention to some of its most grating falsehoods?

SEGAL ARTICLE FALSE

Segal's article from first to last is 100 percent false in spirit and in fact.

The Monetary Congress delegates in Detroit were NOT "money-jugglers". They "Sang NO HYMS OF HATE"—not even one speech, among more than two dozen delivered, exhibited any hate propaganda.

There were no executive sessions. The meetings were held outdoors, with microphone and loudspeakers. All speeches could be heard from the street.

Perhaps the most glaring of Segal's falsehoods was the following:

"The most virulent anti-semitic action of the convention, however, was reserved for executive session. Resolutions adopted at these closed meeting included one condemning Jews for conspiring to imprison loyal Americans, another which accused them of carrying on an anti-Christian campaign, and a third which praised Dartmouth college for maintaining a quota for admission of Jewish students."

The foregoing paragraph is 100 percent FALSE! No such resolutions were introduced, or discussed, and, of course, no such were adopted.

JEV GAVE SCOTT $1,000

Mr. John Scott, editor of "Money", 1165 Broadway, N. Y., was the general secretary. He has always opposed racial and religious prejudice in all forms. HE IS VERY FRIENDLY TO JEWS. He has a right to be. It was a Jew who gave to Mr. Scott $1,000.00 in cash, by far the largest contribution he received, toward the establishment of his little paper, "Money".

RIGHT OF "FREE SPEECH"

Of course, Mr. Scott and the leaders of the monetary reform movement, believe in free speech. If among a dozen speakers, one chose to say, "I oppose political Judaism and the control of our country by any minority, racial or religious or financial," that was the speaker's privilege. But it would not be the voice of the convention, unless affirmed by a vote of the delegates.

One leading speaker specifically objected to some such statement by a minor speaker.

Another leading speaker said that the "international banker" is a bogey man. There is no such issue, he claimed.

Not one speaker in ten mentioned "internationalists" or "international bankers" or the word "Jew". All appeared to be sincere believers in the reform of our monetary system, whereby inflations and deflations might be prevented, and depressions eliminated.

Only a few were "crackpots". (All good movements attract a "lunatic fringe", according to the late Theodore Roosevelt).

While many of the monetary crusaders are proud to be nationalists, there is absolutely no connection between the two groups.

A study of the Congress' new constitution, copy of which I enclose herewith, will confirm this point and give the lie to Segal's wild charges.

NEW CONSTITUTION CONFOUNDS SEGAL

I do not agree to all that is in its statement of principles, but I cite clauses 13 and 15 as contradicting and confounding Segal, as follows:

"13—Freedom cannot be surrendered to get security. We oppose Fascist, Communist, Bureaucratic Dictatorship because they destroy freedom in the name of questionable security. Security with Freedom can and must be attained.

"15 — No discrimination against any individual because of complexion, race, age, sex, religion, parentage, place of birth or for anything beyond the control of that individual."

Segal's statement that "open sessions were devoted largely to propounding the disunity creed of the nationalists" is 100 percent FALSE. I do not recall one single reference in any speech to "nationalists" or "nationalism". Not one speech advocated disunity; or spread one word of hate, except against Communism and then only by two or three speakers.

Someone has been spoofing Segal, or he has a wild imagination. He admits that his (phony) information came to him days after the convention was over. The kind of tripe he dishes up is creative of more "anti-Semitism" than all the writings of those he so unjustly denounces.

DE PRIEST NOT A "DEFENDANT"

I object to Segal's including my name as a "sedition defendant." Without explanation this is "libel per se". I am not a sedition defendant. In 1942 I, who never had an unpatriotic thought in my life, was unjustly indicted in Washington, D. C., for conspiring with persons I never saw nor ever heard tell of.

Justice Adkins quashed nine-tenths of that indictment and the prosecution dropped it. The next grand jury EXONERATED ME and I was not included in the final indictment. . . Col. Sanctuary and Ernest F. Elmhurst were included, but as eight months of trial in Washington failed to produce any evidence against them, I am convinced they, too, are innocent of the absurd charges.

I never wrote or uttered one anti-Semitic line in my life, nor ever condemned any man because of his race, religion or nationality.

Segal's article should NOT have mentioned my name, as I was not a delegate but only a spectator. (I do not think Elmhurst was a delegate. Neither he nor Col. Sanctuary were on the program, nor spoke to the Congress). I do not belong to any monetary organization, although I believe in monetary reform—to eliminate depressions. (My main mission to Detroit was dental).

Segal's article was vicious and libelous, and a wholly false and unjustifiable attack upon American patriots, unworthy of appearing in such great newspapers as Scripps-Howard.

I trust that you, in fairness, will publish this reply in all your papers.
